Hearing

1. Dangerousness Hearing for Two Dogs at 175 Glen Oak Drive

2. Hearing on a Dog Named "Zoey"

Summary of events with "Zoey"

On 4/9/18 Jorge L. DeJesus brought a dog named "Zoey" to TJO for quarantine and potential surrender after the dog bit a minor in the face. DeJesus was the co-owner of the dog and was unsure if he wanted to formally surrender "Zoey" but did leave the dog at TJO for the quarantine period. After the quarantine period the dog was claimed by the co-owner, DeJesus's girlfriend, Jaida Guzman. "Zoey" was returned to her custody with a current rabies vaccine and license on 4/20/18. On 4/23/18, upon learning of the release of "Zoey," the mother of the minor victim requested a Dangerous Dog Hearing. Please see the attached request and bite report for details. Please note that the bite victim is a minor and as such that individual's information has been redacted.
