Councilor Adam Gomez called the meeting to discuss code violations at 122 Chestnut Street.

Building Commissioner Steve Desilets said his office received complaints that work was being done without proper permits. The violations were plumbing and stop work order was issued.

Aaron Papowitz, founder and managing principal of SilverBrick Group stated that the plumbing work was being done by a subcontractor of the General Contractor who has since been let go. He and his team are working to rectify the problems and are committed to quality housing that benefits the Springfield Community.

Councilor Ramos suggested a follow-up meeting at a later to date to check on progress.
