Read and Mayor Domenic J. Sarno asked for because some Councilor were absent and Councilor Williams made a motion for a 15 minutes recess and was seconded by Councilor Walsh and said motion passed by the following roll call vote.

Meeting re-opened at 5:25 pm and Mayor Sarno gave an overview of his budget say that the budget overall, it's an efficient, effective budget and have maximize everything and also try to be compassionate and set forth the following priorities:

1. That the FY15 is an increase of 1.8% and a $21.8 million budget deficit has been reduced to $2.8 million with on layoffs;
2. The City has $30 million in reserves and Moody has upgraded the City's Bond rating to AAA minus;
3. The City budget will allow the City to conduct academies to fill 26 police vacancies and 20 firefighter vacancies;

4. The budget continues programs for construction of roads and sidewalks, maintenance of parks and terraces, and trash collection under a $90 annual trash fee, along with pools, splash facilities and parks being kept open.

Councilor Walsh said that she will support the budget because it avoids layoffs and keeps important core services.

Councilor Williams said that he was also supporting the budget because it's balanced and keep and increased the number of Police and Firefighters and deals with quality of life issues and has no layoffs.

Councilor Concepcion said that he was also supporting the budget because in his 6 years on the Council the budget is balanced and preserved core services.

Councilor Hurst said that he was also supporting the budget but wanted the Mayor to come back with a supplemental budget to deal with staffing issues in the Veteran's Services Department and the Mayor said that issue is being looked at for increased staffing. Councilor Hurst also thanks the Mayor for coming up with $100 thousands for the terraces program because how a City looks to visitor is important quality of life issue.

Councilor Ashe said that he was also supporting the budget because it's balanced and keep and increased the number of Police and Firefighters and has no layoffs.

Councilor Shea that he is supporting the budget because no budget is perfect but it's good for the City and good for the employees with no layoffs.

Councilor Rooke said he is supporting the budget because its better to work together then to delay based on one issue or another and the total budget is moving in the right direction.

The public portion of the Budget meeting was closed at 6:15 pm.
