Memo:

Concerned caller (next door neighbor) reporting that Stella keeps breaking the fence and menacing the neighborhood. I spoke with the caller at length upon my arrival. I asked when Stella had gotten out and she reported, July. I checked the entire side of the fence. There are slats that have been replaced and the fence is solid. I pulled hard on some of the panels and they are secure.

I met with Stella's owner, Nicole, and she reported an ongoing neighbor dispute. Nicole shared that she is a mandated reporter and advised she called with concerns at that home and believes this report is based on a retaliatory approach. She advised she is super careful with Stella and advised that the dog is only out to do her business and then back in. She reported she owns the fence and it has been damaged by their trash barrels. I advised the panels are secure.

Stella is on the small side. She weighs about 45#. She barked at me but was in no way aggressive. Nicole shared the bite incident with me, although she referred to it as a scratch. She reported that she paid their vet bill of $80 and invited me to see the receipts. I advised that was a civil matter and to just hold on to them in case she needed them in the future. Today's visit is unfounded.JS

10/5/20-Call from 24 Thornton requesting to SW supervisor. I CB. Caller reported that she is afraid of the neighbors dog and sometimes finds poop in her front yard. I asked her if it is from her neighbors dog and she said she couldn't definitively say it was. I advised her to call if the dog is loose in her yard or to snap a picture of the poop scoop violation and call us; she also asked about the fence and said she is worried the dog will break through it. I advised our ACO was there last month and did not see any weak spots, but that we couldn't order someone to repair a fence. I advised her to contact Code if the fence is in a state of disrepair-hlo

Contacted O Leadenham to perform fence inspection. Upon arrival fence was sturdy and in satisfactory condition. Leadenham advised there have been on-going issues between her and neighbor at 18 Thornton and police reports have been filed to support that. Leadenham stated she does her best to bring dogs in immediately when they bark and tries not to let her dogs out if dogs at 18 are out. She has placed blue tarps securely over the area of fence that the dogs can see through. Leadenham rents her home and is currently planning to buy a home elsewhere. She stated LL is aware of issues with next door property. Stella and other dog in home barked when I was inside the house but were social and BAR. Leadenham mailed license paperwork to Clerk's office last week. Both dogs are SN & UTD. Any further non-emergency complaints to this address should be brought to AC Supervisor before response. -hlo
